

IMM? The oldest and longest-running international military versatility contest in Europe, organized and implemented reliably!

IMM? The most challenging test of toughness of its class. Brains, strength and stamina are equally demanded. A good general knowledge and aptitude are as indispensable as is first-class physical fitness!

IMM? The meeting of nations. So far participants from 21 nations have been involved, joined together to protect our families, our fellow citizens, our values, our culture – to safeguard peace even in unsafe times!

IMM? Internationally recognized at top levels: since 1984 we have proudly awarded the winner's trophy sponsored by the German Minister of Defense and have received trophies and messages of greeting from NATO's General Secretaries, NATO's Supreme Commanders and the highest ranking generals of the British forces in Germany!

IMM? We have always been in the focus of public interest, which is proved by thousands of press articles and tv reports. We have taken care of 6388 competitors in 1597 teams. Up to now far more than 59.000 people have come into contact with the IMM if we include the organizers, civilian supporters, guests and spectators!

IMM? Just for the fun of it! You meet like-minded people, great characters, you can test your skills and abilities and may go home with a first prize. Why don't you try it? We are looking forward to you competing!!

See you on October 1st 2022? We would be happy!

You enjoy . . .
. . . meeting friends from many other Nations?
You like . . .
. . . participating in a really challenging military competition?
You love . . .
. . . cups and medals?
RUN IN !!

The IMM comprises a wide range of tasks including shooting, marching, navigation and general military knowledge.

The tasks range from those, which might be met on operations: From first aid to uniform recognition, as well as assault course and racing inflatable boats. Intelligence, strength and fitness are tested in equal measure during the IMM, sponsored by the Bundeswehr's North Rhine Westphalia Land Command and organised by the German Reservists Association „Niederrhein“.

The one-day competition is traditionally organised by Reservists with the aim of promoting and enhancing links between different NATO- and neutral forces.

The champion's trophy is donated by the German Minister of Defence since 1984.

Teams of 4 members / soldiers, police, guards, firemen, civil protection etc. Cups are traditionally awarded for the first, second and third teams overall, the top non-German active and reserve team, the top mixed teams (male/female), the top female teams, the top mixed NATO-Teams (from various nations) and the best team of every nation.
